

How to leave a gift in your will

Leaving a gift in your Will is one of the most meaningful ways you can support the revitalization of Indigenous languages, arts, culture and heritage. By doing so, you will leave a lasting legacy that will preserve our precious languages and culture for the young people of today, and for future generations of young people who will continue to breathe life into them for generations to come.

An easy way to give is to make a charitable bequest in your Will. You can leave a specific dollar amount, a percentage of your Estate, or a gift of the residue, which consists of whatever remains in your Estate after gifts to your loved ones and all expenses have been paid.

We can also accept gifts of publicly traded securities such as stocks, bonds and mutual funds, or a share of your life insurance or retirement plan.

Here is some suggested sample wording you can use in your Will to leave a gift to the Foundation. Your lawyer or professional advisor can support you with this. You or they are invited to contact us at any time if you would like to discuss specific details of any gift you would like to leave in your will.

We are deeply honoured to be considered as you plan your legacy giving – thank you.

Suggested sample wording for a charitable bequest:

I give First Peoples' Cultural Foundation, charitable registration number BN872590328 RR0001, the sum of $ _____.

I give First Peoples' Cultural Foundation, charitable registration number BN872590328 RR0001, _____per cent of the residue of my estate.
